

The annual meeting of the Kansas Junior Angus Association was called to order Saturday, June 3rd, 2023 at 5:30 PM by president, Eva Hinrichsen.

Roll call was taken by sign in sheet that was passed around. There were 56 members present.

New members and first time KJAA show exhibitors were asked to come forward and introduce themselves. There were 7 new members.

Minutes from the meeting in January were posed and approved with a motion from Austin Woodrow

Officer Reports:

Treasurer Greta Rosenhagen reported a balance of $43,292.30, with a total of $25,532.00 in income and $10,762.99 in expenses since the January meeting

Vice Presidents Kelsey Theis and Jayce Dickerson began with reminding members about their stall cards for the National Junior Angus Show (NJAS). They then went on to talk about stalling procedures at NJAS, as well as reminding members to sign up for “who you want to be stalled with” with Jerry Theis. Finally, they discussed what the end panels, sign holders, herdsmanship, and T-shirts were going to look like at NJAS.

In Jayce Dickerson’s NJAA board update, he mentioned opportunities for members to expand their network and leadership abilities through attending events such a Leaders Engaged in Angus Development (LEAD) which will be in California this year, as well as Raising the Bar. He then went on to talk about the schedule for NJAS.

Advisor Reports:

Advisor Jerry Theis further reminded members to inform him of their stalling priorities as well as any scratches they might have. (scratches will not affect the amount of space you entered for)

Advisor Brenna Wulfkuhle mentioned that the Kansas Angus Auxiliary has offered to donate $1000 towards snacks for members during NJAS.
